

THE IRANIAN PARLIAMENT

It is stated in an authentic Hadīth that the Dajjāl will be followed by 70 000 Jews from Isfahan (in present-day Iran). It is narrated on the authority of Sayyidunā Anas ibn Mālik raḍiyallāhu ‘anhu that Rasūlullāh ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam said: “The Dajjāl will be followed by 70 000 Jews of Isfahan dressed in Tayālisah (sing. Taylasān; a Persian mantle or shawl).” [Muslim]

The Iranian Parliament is shaped like a triangle and pyramid. Yes, a triangle and pyramid. The pyramid is also featured on the 1-dollar bill, with the eye at the top. The one eye is the main feature of Dajjāl.

A closer look inside the Iranian Parliament reveals some very striking symbolism. At the centre top of the speaker’s podium is the symbol, also featured on the Iranian flag, the word ‘Allāh’ in a circular shape. One each side of the symbol are pictures. Pictures of Khomeini and Khamanei. Pictures of Khomeini and Khamanei feature in all important venues and events. From this, we understand the close link between Iran, the Shia state, the Jews, and Dajjāl, the Deceiver. Moreover, when the pictures of Khomeini and Khamanei feature next to the name of Allāh Ta’ālā, it indicates to the negation of the Khatm-un-Nubuwwah, as the Shia religion contains the fundamental belief of Imāmat – which is, in essence, placing the Imām ahead of the Nabī. We also see propaganda messages like, ‘Muḥammad may be the final messenger, but not the final chapter.’ This is extremely dangerous and blasphemous.

Subḥānallāh, the ḥadīth is true. The followers of Dajjāl are very prominent and influential in Iran. It stands to reason that Muslims around the world should be extremely careful and wary regarding Iranian propaganda. Another word for propaganda is Taqiyyah. Whilst the Jews are masters at propaganda - which we see in the mainstream media - the Shias are masters in Taqiyyah, which we witness all around us, where unwary and ignorant Muslims feel that Iran ‘is the only one doing something about Al-Aqṣā’. There is nothing further from the truth. Whilst the Jewish community is an outstanding one in Tehran, and other parts of Iran - the Shia - who bear hundreds of similarities with the Jews, surround them. The Shia have always been treacherous to the Muslim Ummah.

We must bear in mind that the Noble Qur’ān does not distinguish between a Zionist and a Jew. The Jews feed us the lie that not all of them are Zionist. Well, all Zionists are Jews. The evidence of the Noble Qur’ān is sufficient for us. At the same time, the Shia also deceive the common Muslim and say that they do not hold the blasphemous beliefs of the Shia, but they call themselves Shia! Subḥānallāh, upon what basis do they call themselves Shia. It is because they have the Shia beliefs within their hearts, they practice Taqiyyah, i.e., holy hypocrisy, and are engaged in immorality, which is what makes them Shia. The symbolism of the pyramid indicates extreme levels of immorality. Whilst immorality is on the rise all over the world, it has always been a prominent part of Persian culture, and now Iranian and Shia life. The Shia religion is the only religion that promotes immorality and promiscuity as worship, for which one will be rewarded. May Allāh Ta’ālā save us from all this filth of the Shia religion, and may he guard us all from immorality and promiscuity. Āmīn
